Hawaiian guitar \(mp3\)

James learned to play Hawaiian steel guitar music with the Indonesian Maluku Island people in the 1960's. Since then, his love for steel guitar music has become a deep-rooted part of his life. Today James lives in Hong Kong, where he continues to perform – playing popular Western, Hawaiian and Mandarin songs. He has also recorded various CD's of his own.

James is perhaps the only steel guitar ambassador in his part of the world and his goal is to inspire young people to take up the instrument. Ideal for beach parties but also for easy listening events. Book your Xmas events with Xmas music on Hawaiian guitar! Unique in Hong Kong!
